

Mint

mint: is a light, pale green colour resembling the shade of the leaves from the mint herb, particularly peppermint or spearmint. It is a soft, cool-toned hue with a slight tint of blue, often associated with feelings of freshness, tranquillity, and a sense of nature.

The Mint is a home built with practicality in mind. This home is an entertainer's delight with the eating and entertaining areas downstairs, while the bedrooms are tucked away from the action upstairs. This home design offers many clever design features in one undeniably stylish and spacious floor plan.
